A Word from our President

Well another club year is well underway and despite my best efforts I'm still in the chair! And actually is not a bad to be. It is very rewarding to see the club working well and everyone enjoying their photography.

The end of year dinner went very well and everyone seemed to enjoy themselves. Special mention should be made of Mat who seemed to get awards and prize from everywhere. I'm sure is only regret is he didn't buy a Tatts ticket! It was also very pleasing to see Rosie take out the Set Topic award for the year. Her first major and I'm sure there will be more.

A subcommittee was put together the syllabus and I believe that after a couple of lunchtime meetings a local venue it is been nailed! It looks like we have good year coming up.

John W, Rosie and Chris have been busy putting together same greeting cards for sale at the up coming craft day at the church. We also are having an exhibition in the church and offering members prints for sale. If you have any prints (mounted) that like to donate for sale please put them aside. Members will be reimbursed up to $10 for the cost of producing them.

Jill and Iain are still in Singapore but Jill is still active within the club and producing the newsletter that you are currently reading. If have any articles that would be suitable please send then to her. I believe some of usual columnist has been a bit slow this time, (sorry Jill!!)

COLOUR MANAGEMENT WORKSHOP

InterClub Workshop with Les Walkling

Visitors from Eastern Suburbs, Maroondah and Camberwell Camera Club's joined RBWCC members for a very informative and stimulating presentation by Les Walkling at our April mid-monthly workshop. The presentation covered a range of colour management issues faced by photographers in today's digital age. A great night was had by all. If you are interested in the topic but were unable to attend on the night, the workshop notes can still be downloaded from Les Walkling's website: www.leswalkling.com/rbwcc.html

Jill

Clearly a rivetting topic!

ITEMS FOR NEWSLETTER

Please email items for publication to jill@picturepathways.com.au. The deadline for submissions for the next quarterly newsletter is Friday 10 November, 2007. If possible, please send your submissions as unformatted Word documents (i.e. no columns, indents, alignment etc; but using bold for headings is fine), with images attached separately as .jpg files.

Don't forget, if you would like your winning prints to appear in the newsletter, or in the Gallery section of the Club's website, please send them as .jpg files to Jill at the above email address. (If preferred, .jpg images can be submitted on CDROM.) If emailing, please restrict images to 1024 pixels by 768 pixels to minimise file size.

If anyone would like to exhibit their favourite images in the gallery, please forward them to Peter Westley:
